

Poster presentation: Objective, Categories, Topics, Rules & Regulations, and Instructions

Objective

The objective of the poster presentation is to:

- Promote research and innovation among participants.
- Provide a platform for presenting academic and scientific ideas in a visual format.
- Foster creativity in presenting complex information in an easy-to-understand manner.
- Encourage peer learning and collaboration in diverse research areas.

Categories for Participation

1. 11th & 12th,
2. Undergraduate & postgraduate:

Topics

The poster presentation can cover a variety of topics, including but not limited to:

- Current Research in Science and Technology
- Innovative Solutions for Global Challenges
- Sustainable Development and Environment
- Advances in Engineering and Medicine
- Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning
- Social Issues and Solutions
- Interdisciplinary Studies

Rules & Regulations

Eligibility:

- Open to individuals in the specified categories (11th & 12th and Undergraduate).
- Each participant can present only one poster.

Presentation Format:

- Posters should present innovative ideas and can be designed to showcase any given category effectively.
- The poster should be a clear and concise visual representation of research or a topic of study.
- The poster size Poster dimensions varies, but 39" x 39" (1×1 meter) is a common poster size.
- The content should be self-explanatory, with a well-structured title, introduction, methodology, results, and conclusion (if applicable).
- Ensure high-quality graphics, readable fonts, and organized content.

Submission Guidelines:

- Physical posters may need to be brought to the event venue in standard size format.

Event Day Requirements:

1. Participants must check in at the registration desk upon arrival and bring their ID card for verification.
2. Set up your poster in the designated area at least 30 minutes before the presentation time.
3. You will have 5-8 minutes to present your poster to judges.
4. Prepare for a brief Q&A session where the judges or audience may ask questions about your research.

Scoring Criteria:

1. Content (50%):
 - Relevance of the topic.
 - Depth of research and information provided.
 - Clarity and structure of the content.
2. Design (30%):
 - Visual appeal and clarity of the poster design.
 - Use of graphics, charts, and diagrams.
3. Presentation (20%):
 - Ability to explain the poster clearly and concisely.
 - Engagement with the audience during the Q&A.

Prizes & Recognition:

- Top Winners: The top two winners will receive certificates, trophies, and cash prizes.
- Runner-ups: Trophy and Certificate for notable mentions and a certificate for all participants.
- Participation Certificates: Awarded to all registered participants.

Disqualification:

- Plagiarism: Copying content or posters from other sources.
- Non-compliance: Failure to follow the event guidelines or dishonesty during the presentation.

Sanjay Ghodawat University Kolhapur

Established as a State Private University under Govt. of Maharashtra Act No. XL dated 3rd May 2017

Empowering Lives Globally !

Code of Conduct:

- Maintain professionalism and respect during the event.
- Any form of cheating or dishonesty will result in disqualification.
- All participants must adhere to the event schedule and guidelines.

Queries:

- For any questions or concerns,
please contact:
Dr. Satish A Mahadik,
Phone: 9822946226

This structure will guide participants in preparing their posters and engaging in a professional and competitive environment while ensuring a smooth and fair event experience.

Poster presentation: how to make a presentation

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=C5l1Fu7roIM>